

Circular No. 272

To all High Court Judges,

Delays in Serving indictments

The Judicial Service Commission has directed me to inform you that at a discussion convened by the Minister of Justice it has been brought to the notice of the Hon. Chief Justice that there are delays in serving indictments sent out by the Attorney General. In the circumstances the Commission has directed me to inform you that all High Court Judges are required to ensure that indictments are served as early as possible after they are received and the notice of indictments should be issued within two weeks of the receipt of the indictment.
