

The Chairman of the Board of Quazis,
Members of the Board of Quazis and all Quazis.

Office of Quazi

The Judicial Service Commission taking into consideration the necessity of maintaining the dignity of the office of Quazi in a developing standard decided that the Chairman of the Board of Quazis, its members and other Quazis should follow the provisions set out below.

01. Attire : Should be dressed in formal attire while engaged in duties in the Board Quazis and Quazi Court.

Formal attire : (i) Trouser, White shirt, Black tie and a Black or White Coat or
(ii) Jubba, Cap and Black Coat

02. Issuing statements : Should not participate in Radio or Television programmes and Should refrain from issuing statements to the press and other media and participating at interviews without obtaining the prior approval of the Judicial Service Commission.

03. Holding workshops and meetings : Should refrain from holding workshops and meetings and from participating at them without obtaining the prior approval of the Judicial Service Commission.

Secretary
Judicial Service Commission

Office of the Judicial Service Commission Secretariat
Colombo 12,

24 July 2008.